Post Commander

2012 Is here and we are off and running for another great year for our Post. First of all I would like to THANK all the supporters of the downtown Flag project for without your support we could not make this happen . A great and heartfelt thanks to each and every one of you. With your support we can Keep Walla Walla one of the greatest sponsors of Americanism in this Nation; THANKS TO ALL WHO HAVE MADE THIS HAPPEN!!!

As we enter this new year I would like to thank all the post members who have been so generous with your time and support. With our Veterans heartfelt thanks. As we enter this new year may we face the challenges ahead of us with trust in others and the knowledge that we as AMVETS will lead the way to support our fellow veterans here and across the world. Finally; Have a great year. Hope to see you at our next Post meeting Jan 18, 2012

Larry Cunnington,
Post Commander

Colunga Family moves to the other Washington

Shayna Colunga was filling two positions in our post, that of 1st Vice Commander and Adjutant. Husband Pedro, still in the Army, has been transferred to Washington D.C.

The annual Post Christmas party, held at Jacobi's this year, also served as a going away party for the family just days before they left Walla Walla. The Colunga's have two children, Camrin and Juliet.

Shayna has been very active in the post while Pedro was serving in South Korea for the past year. She will be missed and as a token of our appreciation for her work in the post, a few members contributed to purchasing an AMVETS life membership for her.

We wish the Colunga family a Happy New Year and much success in their future endeavors. Hopefully they will choose to return to the "Friendliest Small Town in the USA" someday.

The Christmas party was another great success this year as usual, thanks to Norm Graybeal, Tiny Cunnington, and Shayna Colunga.

Also thanks to Jacobi's Restaurant for some excellent food and service.
